

PRESS RELEASE

Toulouse September 27th, 2017

The IGE+XAO Group wins the Nantes hospital center bid.

Nantes hospital center, which includes several sites, launched a request in late 2016 for a quotation with the objective to acquire a Computer-Aided Design package dedicated to electrical engineering. Following the selection process, IGE+XAO packages SEE Electrical Expert (electrical design) and SEE Project Manager (electrical data and documents management) have been selected.

SEE Electrical Expert is a superbly flexible package, completely customizable and adapted to any company, whichever its industry or size. The package includes key features for designing and managing electrical installation documentation:

- Dedicated and high performance schematics editor,
- Numerous automated drawing functions,
- Terminals and connectors management,
- PLC I/O management,
- Bill of materials and cable lists generation
- 2D-3D panel design.

SEE Project Manager is a documentation and technical data management package dedicated to electrical projects. This collaborative tool enables the sharing and lifecycle management of electrical projects as well as associated documents while centralizing and securing information on a server.

"We are particularly proud with Nantes hospital center decision. We will provide them with our 30 years of experience, our experts know-how as well as the proximity with our Nantes site and its collaborators" declared Alain Di Crescenzo, Chairman and CEO of the IGE+XAO Group.
